Please jot down your thoughts below. You will not need to share your answers.

- What is your comfort level when talking about race or racism? What causes you discomfort?

- How much impact does race have on your life? Do you think about it, and/or notice it often?

- What do you notice about common encounters with people of different races (at work, school, groups you belong to, in positions of authority/service, etc.)? Who is present, and who is absent? Why might this be the case?
